

New Hampshire

Hamptons Style

This gorgeous Georgian/Hamptons style home is generally characterized by its striking appearance of proportion and balance. Large windows, timber doors, structured columns and a generous open plan living allow this home to embrace the casual elegance this style is renowned for. A mix of cladding, stone and render makes it timeless and its function will impress. With the bedrooms located upstairs and a bonus sitting room, this design provides privacy and a place to relax.

