

The Vista

Contemporary Resort

Nothing but “spectacular” can describe this uniquely curated split-level designed home. With a resort style feel this home reminds us of a tranquil setting amongst the hectic backdrop of city living. With its front elevation full of large -scale windows, alfresco and balcony this home unobtrusively allows the outside in without comprising its sense of privacy, combining both a striking and inviting exterior. Having numerous well -appointed living areas throughout, this floorplan was intended for both function and carefree living at its finest.
