

Eagle Bay

Coastal Plantation

Rural, coastal or riverside setting, the Eagle Bay has been designed to command sweeping views and is a homage to Western Australian's love of the great outdoors. Natural textures fused with contemporary materials, soaring ceilings, a monolithic stone fireplace and a wall of windows that look out onto the natural landscape, are a contemporary take on the grand mountain lodge. An expansive, split level deck creates a series of soft scapes to complement its surrounds.

